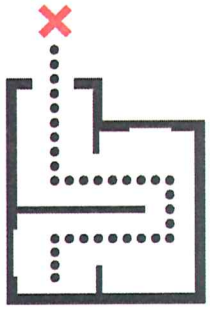
American Red Cross

September is National Preparedness Month

Red Cross Family Preparedness Day

Saturday, September 8



The American Red Cross, in collaboration with a handful of community partners, will open and operate simulated emergency shelters at three locations throughout the state on Saturday, Sept. 8, 2007. Individuals and families are welcome to visit to experience a shelter first hand and learn how to prepare their households before disaster strikes. There's something for everyone at these open house events -- tour an emergency response vehicle, meet Ready Dog, train as a volunteer, register your family as Safe & Well and learn what to bring to an emergency shelter if you are forced to evacuate your home. For more information, call your local Red Cross Chapter: (801) 323-7000 in the Salt Lake Area, (801) 373-8580 in Provo, (801) 627-0000 in Ogden or (435) 752-1125 in Logan.

Salt Lake Area

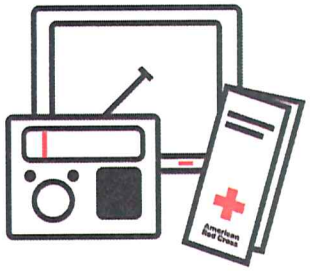
Juan Diego High School
300 E 11800 S
Draper, UT
10 am to 4 pm

Provo Area

Sam's Club
1313 University Avenue
Provo, UT
8 am to 4 pm

Ogden Area

Newgate Mall
3651 Wall Avenue
Ogden, UT
11 am to 4 pm

Logan Area


Each and every day, your local Red Cross chapter is providing preparedness information and training to the public. To learn more, visit cachecounty.redcross.org.